

STRANGE EVENTS

I thought we were the only ones that had noticed the strange events until we saw the news report on T.V.....

All over town disaster struck! First we scanned the T.V. It was unbelievable. My friend Izzy's head was stuck out of a shiny window. Suddenly all of these surprising photos popped up on the dusty screen. But there was something weird about the photos, they all had big heads sticking out of windows.

We had an obvious clue now. All of the heads were sticking out of windows. There was another fishy thing happening. These people all closed their windows and never opened them. "Yes two clues done and dusted!"

Maybe this object thing or person was made out of windows and wanted to pay back the people who didn't use their windows. I'm just joking". We were going to find this massive problem out. So we went to Izzy's house and asked what time she got stuck. She told us she was trembling but it happened at six'o' clock on the dot. But said she didn't know who it was.

So after a big argument one of us decided to hide behind the window and other behind the big bookshelf. We waited and waited until I saw the most extraordinary sight in my life. Two huge arms connected to the window and two huge eyes. It pulled me up and squeezed my head through the window. I screamed out "Why are you doing this to me"! It appeared that I had been right all along. He was paying back the people that didn't open their windows.

We finished the long, tiring chat and told him I would tell the people that didn't open their windows to open it even if they didn't feel like it otherwise it would happen again. Of course they did and it never happened again!
