

Active Travel

Why should children walk or ride to school? It has been scientifically proven that it is more effective, efficient and more economical to walk or ride to school rather than driving a car to school. Not only that if you walk to school it will build up your stamina and your safety awareness. Also if you drive to school it creates less traffic congestion on the roads making it safer to walk or ride to school.

