

Why should children walk or ride to school?

Everyone should walk or ride to school because it helps children grow and develop strong and healthy bodies. There are many reasons why children should walk or ride to school.

The first reason is it keeps kids active and healthy and want to play and be outside more. Parents love it when their children are happy and healthy. So for this reason children should walk or ride to school.

The second reason is that it is good for the environment and decreases pollution. We don't want a polluted country do we? Therefore children should walk or ride to school.

The last reason is that you get more fresh air. Fresh air is really good for us because our parents don't want us lazy and angry. So for this reason children should walk or ride to school.

Scientists have proven all these reasons are true. I hope all of you be active and healthy.
