

BOOK WEEK 2018

GUEST AUTHOR

Ben Long first started writing rhymes to entertain himself on the train to the office where he worked as a scientist. His books are known for their funny characters, lots of rhyming and a catchy rhythm to read aloud. You might already know 'Higgledy Giggledy', 'Tickle Me Zoo', 'Ready, Steady, Hatch' or 'Jasper Juggles Jellyfish'. Ben is always working on new ideas and is currently writing about a boy who wants to be in the circus. You are invited to listen to Ben share his stories and his secrets to writing.
